

RUBY GOWN SIZE GUIDE

The Ruby Gown is made from a fabric that has a reasonable amount of stretch, therefore there can be some stretch in the hip area. This gown is very structured in the bust and waist area and we recommend sizing accurately for your bust and waist measurements. If you are in between sizes, go up a size and then you can have it tailored to give an exact fit.

RUBY GOWN	SIZE	BUST	WAIST	HIP
	4	80	55	85
	6	85	60	90
	8	90	65	95
	10	95	70	100
	12	100	75	105
	14	105	80	110
	16	110	85	115
	18	115	90	120

Stand up straight with both arms lifted and feet together

Measuring Your Bust:

1. Take the tape around your back
2. Bring it across your bust at the fullest part
3. Record measurement

Measuring Your Waist:

1. Wrap the tape around your waist just above your belly button or naturally where you curve in when you bend side to side.
2. Record measurement

Measuring Your Hips:

1. Loop the tape completely around your bottom and thighs at the fullest part
2. Record measurement

Now that you have all three measurements, make sure you match them accordingly--bust-waist-hips. For example: 82-62-90
